Get help avoiding scam callers by signing up to a Priority Services Register

Scams come in many forms and involves uninvited contact by email, letter, telephone or in person. False promises are made to con victims out of money often through doorstep calls to people's homes under the guise of legitimate business or trade.

Sadly, during the last year of lockdowns, scam calls have risen steeply but one way you can take action to protect yourself is to sign up to a Priority Services Register. Most utility companies have set them up and Yorkshire Water is leading the way in aiming to get a lot more people aged over 65 to join their register.
